

FACET

FORUM ADVOCATING CULTURAL AND ECO-TOURISM

FORUM & AGM

Monday, 8 October 2018

3.30 - 6.30pm

Art Gallery of WA & AGM - State Library of Western Australia

REGISTER NOW

SIDNEY NOLAN'S NED KELLY SERIES

Ned Kelly seen through Sidney Nolan's rebel masterpiece series, explores themes of identity, individuality, a strong sense of place and vivid brushwork, which have cemented this series of outlaw Ned Kelly in Australia's psyche of national identity. The Australian iconic rebel Ned Kelly, as immortalised in Sidney Nolan's celebrated series of 26 works from the 1940s is a must see. On loan from the National Gallery of Australia, the exhibition offers a rare opportunity to view this renowned sequence depicting the story of the fabled bush outlaw Kelly, demonstrating Nolan's characteristic bold and expressive sense of landscape and vivid storytelling.

FORUM & AGM PROGRAM

- 3.30pm Registration - Art Gallery Foyer
- 3.45-4.45pm Tour of the Sidney Nolan Exhibition
- 5.00-6.00pm FACET AGM, State Library of WA
Great Southern Room, Level 4
- 6.00-6.30pm Networking & Refreshments

Free admission to exhibition.

No charge to attend the Annual General Meeting.

Register online by 1 October or
Email admin@facet.asn.au

With thanks to our partners & sponsors

Department of Biodiversity,
Conservation and Attractions

City of Perth

Fraser's
EVENTS ★ CATERING

